

J. P. MORGAN RALLIES, FOLLOWING OPERATION

Bulletin Issued by Physicians Says
He Passed a Comfortable Night.

NEW YORK, October 30.—J. P. Morgan spent a comfortable night following the operation upon him for appendicitis, and his condition, according to a bulletin issued by his physicians.

Although this morning's bulletin made no mention of Mr. Morgan's temperature or pulse, it was unofficially learned that neither of these is a cause for worry to Mr. Morgan's family or physicians.

When a member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. was asked today regarding reports that the financier's illness was more serious than the physicians' bulletins had indicated, he said that Mr. Morgan was in a good state of mind, and that he was in no way seriously concerned over his father's illness.

Bulletin by Physicians.

The bulletin given out at the office of J. P. Morgan & Co. at 10 o'clock today read:

"Mr. Morgan had a comfortable night. His condition this morning is in every way satisfactory."

"H. H. M. LYLE, M. D."

Tuesday afternoon Mr. Morgan attended a meeting of the directors of the United States Steel Corporation. He was then in his study at his home, 170 West 57th street, where he was in bed. Thursday, however, he was indisposed and specialists diagnosed his ailment as a mild attack of appendicitis. Fearing a recurrence of the malady later, his physicians advised him to have the operation without delay and Mr. Morgan consented.

Worked Hard on Loan.

During the month and more that the Anglo-French loan commission spent in negotiations in this city Mr. Morgan's working hours were long. Even on Sundays, he did not neglect the members of the commission, but entertained Lord Reading and his associates frequently at his Glen Cove home.

The negotiations ended in success. Mr. Morgan announced that he intended to take a vacation of two weeks. This he did returning only a few days ago to his office.

Whether Mr. Morgan's present indisposition could be attributed in part to the recent strenuous activity could not be ascertained, but the general impression in the financial section was that such might be the case. Mr. Morgan is forty-eight years old.

THIRD SADDLE RALLY IS SET FOR TOMORROW

Horseback Riders Invited to Gather at Pierce Mill at 3 O'Clock.

Leaders Announced.

The third saddle rally of the riders of Washington will be held in Rock Creek Park tomorrow afternoon. The main rally will take place at Pierce Mill at 3 o'clock. Among the pioneers and promoters of the back-to-the-saddle movement who will be at Pierce Mill to welcome every man, woman and child, and who will see to it that those who desire to join the riding groups will be Mr. von Ziehlinski, Mr. Klepe, Mr. Brown and Mr. Brand. Sgt. Joyce, superintendent of the park, will also be on hand.

The back-to-the-saddle propagandists want to see a large turnout of the horseback riders of the District. The lonely and solitary rider who wants to enjoy his horse and the park trails without attaching himself to the riding groups will be given any information he needs about the roads, the order of the rally and will be set right if he should go astray in the valley where the riding is too rough for comfort and safety.

The only aim of the riders is to win back people to the old-time sport and exercise of horseback riding, and to teach them that they can have a good time riding through the woods without putting on a red coat and riding two feet out of the saddle at every stride of the horse.

The park is a great public reservation, and the horse is your friend if you treat him right.

A large group of Washington University students will ride tomorrow morning, and it is thought that a number will also turn out tomorrow afternoon.

TALKS ON NATIONAL DEFENSE.

Assistant Secretary Roosevelt Indicates
Attitude of Administration.

NEW YORK, October 30.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, who is here to aid the democrats in their state campaign, in an address last night touched on the question of national defense.

"The administration at Washington," he said, "believes that it is just as wrong to say that we should have a million men constantly under arms as it is to say that the country could obtain a million men overnight if it called for them."

The day is passed, he added, when a man can take a shotgun or a revolver from the mantelpiece and go forth, as did the men at Lexington and Concord.

Baby Falls From a Window.

Charles J. Stickle, twelve months old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stickle, 518 17th street northeast, fell from a second story window at his home last night and was seriously hurt. Dr. Dunn responded to a call sent to Casualty Hospital. First aid was given the little one and he was taken to Children's Hospital. It is said that the child may have sustained internal injuries.

To Illustrate Lecture on Navy.

"Our Navy, and What It Means," is the subject of an illustrated lecture to be given by Dr. Edward Breck Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the assembly room of McMahon Hall, Catholic University. The lecture, which is to be given under the auspices of the Navy League of the United States, is to be free and open to the public.

SECRETARY DANIELS TWIXT
"DEVIL AND THE DEEP SEA"

Attends Navy-North Carolina "Aggies" Foot Ball Game and Doesn't Know for Which Side to Root.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

ANNAPOLIS, October 30.—Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels are among the spectators at the Navy-North Carolina "Aggies" foot ball game at the Naval Academy this afternoon. The Secretary and Mrs. Daniels motored from Washington in the car of his aid, Lieut. Commander D. W. Wurtzbaugh. Mrs. Wurtzbaugh also is in the party, which will remain overnight as the guests of Supt. Kennedy, who will attend the midshipmen's hop this evening.

There were no formal ceremonies in receiving Secretary Daniels, with the exception that the ship's band played "The Star-Spangled Banner" as the Secretary's party came ashore. The Secretary's party came ashore in the ship's launch.

Secretary Daniels this afternoon is undergoing the experience of a trained diplomat. He admits that it will take the very best diplomatic powers that are in him to handle the situation to please. For he is not representing one side of the controversy, but the two sides, and he must please both. All the morning he was pondering over the question of how he should root at the foot ball game at Annapolis this afternoon.

The foot ball team of the Naval Academy will play the Agricultural College team from Raleigh, N. C. Secretary Daniels' home town was wondering whether he should root for the Navy or the Agricultural College, or just keep his mouth shut for both, or possibly keep silent and just smile.

"If I root for the Navy I might lose my home, and if I root for the Agricultural College I might lose my job. So there I am."

The Secretary left for Annapolis the Secretary had not decided the rules of diplomacy that would be applied.

CHURCH HEADS INDICTED.

New Thought Leaders Accused of Violating Federal Laws.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 30.—Federal indictments have been returned against Dr. New Thought Church, whom federal officers arrested with Dr. Marie Tully Graham early in the month and charged with gross misconduct, misrepresentation and misuse of the mails.

The indictments indicted also as a co-worker in the church, which the government alleges was a scheme to defraud.

Dr. New was indicted on seven counts, the principal offense charged being use of the mails to defraud. The indictment alleged that Archbishop New wasn't "divine or immortal" and that he could not heal the sick.

Both Dr. New and Mrs. Graham had been out on bail, and deputy marshals went out to arrest them again.

GETS CASH AND $22,000 CHECK.

Bank Robber Picks Up Loot With Device Resembling Fountain Pen.

The man made off before the teller realized what had occurred.

The police were not notified until late yesterday, when President Waldo Newman admitted that the money had been stolen. There is no clue other than the teller's statement that the men were of dark complexion and appeared to be foreigners.

PLANS LAID TO GET MR. MCOMBS' SCALP

Democratic Chairmanship Politics May Be Played Here in December.

FRED LYNCH IS BOOMED FOR COMMITTEE'S HEAD

Suggestion Made That Candidate
May Not Select Next Campaign Manager.

It is expected here that there will be some energetic underground wire-pulling over the next chairmanship at the meeting of the democratic national committee in this city December 7, that date having been fixed by William F. McCombs, the present chairman.

That the majority of the committee as now constituted will not favor the retention of William F. McCombs after the next national convention is pretty well assured, according to inside information. A large number of the members of the present committee will be on the next committee and their influence will amount to much in the selection of a chairman. There has for some time been a strong sentiment for Fred Lynch, national committeeman from Minnesota, and one of the big men of the party in the northwestern states.

Mr. Lynch is the favorite for chairman and there does not appear to be much opposition to his selection unless it comes from the McCombs following.

Selected by Mr. Wilson.

President Wilson himself selected Mr. McCombs for the chairmanship three years ago, and the committee accepted this selection. Some believe that, contrary to precedent, the committee will next year insist upon the election of its own chairman, and will so inform President Wilson after he is nominated. If the President agrees to that the elimination of Mr. McCombs is assured. It is declared. The next committee, it is asserted, will insist upon having more to do with running the campaign than the last one. Mr. McCombs was the "whole show" in the last campaign, and friction developed between him and William G. McAdoo, vice chairman of the committee, almost from the start. The breach was never healed, and today Mr. McCombs is understood to look with suspicion on any proposition that Mr. McAdoo and other close friends of the President propose.

President Wilson is most likely to keep hands off the internal affairs of the committee. When he was first nominated he felt that he should use his own discretion as to the chairmanship, as presidential candidates have always done in the past. In the next campaign, according to the democratic viewpoint, it will make little difference who is named chairman, so long as he is a man of discretion and tact. The President, democrats believe, is certain of re-election, and there will be little to do in the next fight except to sit still and let Mr. Wilson be the entire show. The chairman, they say, would simply keep in touch with the various states and hold things in harmonious fashion for the November election.

Hard Fight for Congress.

It is predicted that the democrats will have to put up their hardest fight for Congress. If the republicans see that they have a poor chance for the presidency, they may devote their best efforts to electing a House and securing as many Senators as possible. With a republican House Mr. Wilson, if re-elected, would be unable to do much, and the democrats understand this.

Should Fred Lynch be elected chairman of the committee "Tom" Pence, now acting secretary, will be a permanent secretary. He has strong friends on the committee and is favored by a majority of the committee. Because Mr. Pence is close to the administration, and an especially close friend of Secretary Tumulty, the charge is made that McCombs stands in the way of his election now, the office being vacant. Pence is discharging the duties of the office and will probably continue to do the work. He is not antagonizing Mr. McCombs nor anybody else, it is known, and no issue is likely to be made over his position at the meeting.

There are several vacancies on the committee to be filled and two men are claiming the honor of membership from Kentucky and two from Oregon. Some fighting may develop over these places.

President May Be Host.

There was no information at the White House today as to whether President Wilson will entertain the members of the committee when they assemble here December 7, under call of Chairman McCombs, for the purpose of considering the date for the next national convention and the city in which it is to be held.

Suggestions have been made that the President will give a dinner in honor of the committee.

AMERICAN REPORTED SHOT.

Gen. Agramonte Said to Have Been Executed by Carranza.

NEW ORLEANS, October 30.—Private letters received by prominent Mexicans here contain reports that Gen. C. M. Agramonte, a prominent member of the American colony in Mexico City, and once president of the American Society, had been executed by Carranza officials in the capital about ten days ago.

For years Gen. Agramonte was publisher of the Anglo-American in Mexico City, and was said to have been a major in the United States Federal army during the civil war. He was about eighty-four years old.
